9-10:30am (registration starts at 8:50am)
135 E. Las Tunas Dr., San Gabriel, CA 91776

DreamDance Foundation is a state registered non-profit organization. This Program is designed for Chinese-American young talents and is open to the general public. We welcome dancers who are talented, open minded, responsible and are willing to work with others. We need your creativity, positive energy, and passion for dance!

Eligibility: Ages 17-30 with structured dance training. Young dancers 14-16 are eligible for our new partial scholarship and apprenticeship program. DreamDance II is qualified to issue Community Service Hours and Performance Certificates to students for their college application. Application fee is waived for applications received before Sept. 16. Otherwise, a $10 application fee is required on the audition day.

Audition: group warm up, ballet bar, and center combination. Each dancer must prepare for a two-minute solo and a personal interview. Please submit all the required materials. The audition and interview will evaluate a dancer's talent, ability, personality, and commitment. The final decision is based on the committee's and the judges' evaluation, as well as DDII's annual budget.

2010 DDII Full Scholarship Program: Up to 8 full scholarships will be awarded. Recipients will receive approximately 27 weeks of professional dance training, rehearsals, and performance opportunities (A value of approximately $1,750).*

2010 DDII Partial Scholarship and Apprentice Program: Up to 8 partial scholarships and 8 apprenticeships will be awarded. Recipients will participate in various rehearsals for free (A value of approximately $600-1,200) but will be required to pay a nominal fee for the company classes.* The apprentices will have the opportunity to compete for performance opportunities with the company, based on their participation, qualification, and improvement.

Please note: Scholarship and apprenticeship recipients must fulfill all the responsibilities outlined on their contracts. The benefits offered are subject to change, and DreamDance Foundation reserves the rights to make adjustment to the benefits and regulations as it see fits. A $35 membership fee (non-refundable) and a $100 deposit check (refundable) is required for all scholarship and apprenticeship recipients.
